2. Scope

The Code of Ethics applies to all staff, students and stakeholders of Niche, including all divisions of Niche (Australasian Academy of Cosmetic Dermal Science, Australian College of Beauty Therapy, Australian College of Specialist Make-Up).

The ACPET Code of Ethics and Code of Practice defines the standards expected from Members of ACPET in accordance with the Constitution and By Laws.

3. Responsibility

It is the ultimate responsibility of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to ensure compliance with the Code of Ethics and Code of Practice.

It is the responsibility of all staff to abide by the Code Of Ethics.

4. Implementation

CEO, Education & Training Managers, Administration & Compliance Managers and Marketing Mangers.

5. Policy

Niche will comply with ACPET Code of Ethics and Code of Practice.

Niche will complete and submit a signed self-assessment declaration to ACPET annually as part of Niches membership renewal.

6. Procedure

- Niche conducts an annual self-assessment of compliance to the Codes at the time of Membership renewal.
- Where elements may not have been met Niche will take action to implement required procedures, policies so that Niche can meet all requirements.
- All new employees are given a copy of the Code of Ethics so that all staff of Niche are aware of their responsibly in relation to the Code.
- The Code of Ethics and Code of Practice are published with other policies relevant to students on the website to inform them of the current requirements.
- More detailed information on the Code of Ethics and Code of Practice can be found on the ACPET website. www.acpet.edu.au.
